Requirements

People

This work will be completed by the team at Why R foundation, some of whom are already actively working on the project. The existing personnel will be complemented by the Funded Presenters.

Processes

The Why R? foundation have a Code of Conduct that is accessible on the Why R? website. This Code of Conduct is updated on an ongoing basis. Additionally, a Code of Conduct specific to this project will be implemented.This Code of Conduct will align with COCs for similarly structured projects in the R community.

We anticipate having meetings every 2 months about progress and quarterly ISC meetings.

Payments

Payments will be processed by the Why R? Foundation, but can be processed by the R consortium if preferable. Payments will be made on the basis of professional services. Presenters are responsible for their own tax affairs. Payments will be made to each presenter and travel expenses will not be funded.
